

Guy Marcozzi, PE, F.ASCE

INDEPENDENT BOARD MEMBER · EXECUTIVE ADVISOR · SPEAKER

Trusted Counsel. Strategic Clarity. Lasting Results.

About

Guy Marcozzi is an independent board member, executive advisor, and speaker. A leadership confidant to CEOs and senior teams, he helps leaders thrive through change — interpreting business trends, sharpening strategy, and channeling an organization's energy toward defined, fully aligned goals.

Guy spent his executive career at Duffield Associates, the Delaware-based engineering firm known for its work in soil, water, and the environment, rising to President and CEO. He led the firm through its 2021 merger into Verdantas, a national environmental and engineering consultancy, where he served as Executive Vice President and later as a senior consultant to the combined company.

Board & Advisory Experience

- University of Delaware — Board Member
- Board leadership across ESOP, nonprofit, professional, and business organizations, including president of the Delaware Engineering Society and the Delaware Association of Professional Engineers

Selected Career Highlights

- President & CEO, Duffield Associates — led the firm through its 2021 merger into Verdantas
- Executive Vice President, Verdantas
- Delaware Engineer of the Year, 2012 (Delaware Engineering Society); Delaware's first Young Engineer of the Year, 2000
- Adjunct Professor, University of Delaware College of Engineering; B.S. and M.S. in Civil Engineering, University of Delaware
- Licensed Professional Engineer in multiple states; Fellow, American Society of Civil Engineers; LEED AP BD+C

Author, Speaker & Podcast Host

Author of Mostly True: Observations about Life, Work and Being Human (Molto Tempo, 2026), written as Marco Guy. Host of the GeoHeroes interview series on the GBA Podcast. Available for keynotes, panels, and executive conversations on leadership, organizational resilience and culture, and the intelligent use of technology.